The Road to Qatar! is a new true musical comedy about two American musical theatre writers commissioned to do the impossible: write a larger-than-life Broadway-style mega-musical for the Emir of Qatar including 100 actors, 40 camels, 17 fire-eating jugglers and Muhammad Ali. Surprises abound as the quirky self-professed “short Jewish writers” leave New York and begin trotting the globe in their own version of a madcap Bob Hope/Bing Crosby adventure!

Celebrate the Art of Belly Dancing with Najla at The Road To Qatar - Purchase a ticket to the 7PM performance on February 22nd and directly following the performance, stay for a brief Belly Dancing demonstration. Najla brings the spirit of the Middle East to the New York City area through the beautiful art of belly dance. Feel the joy of dance by learning the expressive basic movements of belly dance right from your seat. Belly dancing is fun for all ages, sizes and genders, and is a great way to learn something new while getting in shape. Learn more about Najla at her website. www.najlabellydance.com
